

Please leave the current do not call legislation in place. It has been quite a pleasure for my family and I to not be called while we're eating or spending time together.
Thank You